Circular Letter No. 5.

October 2, 1903.

To the Superintendents.

Gentlemen:-

I am sending you under separate cover a few copies of the manual recently issued by the Department as a guide to the American teachers in Porto Rico for the teaching of English. This manual has been prepared by Mr. Paul G. Miller, and I am very sure you will find that it will prove of great value in aiding the American teachers, especially those who are beginning their work this year, in giving instruction along the lines which experience has proven most satisfactory. Copies of the manual have already been given to the teachers of English, and these sent you are for your personal use. If in any case a teacher of English has not received a manual, one will be forwarded upon request. I trust that you will familiarize yourself with the contents of this pamphlet, and insist that all the teachers of English follow, in the main, the directions there given.

Yours respectfully,

Samuel McCune Lindsay

Commissioner.
